

Events Volunteers

Why we want you

Carymoor Environmental Trust is an environmental education and nature conservation charity. Each year our team engages with over 20,000 people and more than 300 schools. Our vision is to make sustainability central to everyone's daily lives by encouraging environmental responsibility across all sectors of the community.

We are looking for volunteers to help with a wide range of events and activities both at Carymoor and at other locations. This could include meeting and greeting visitors, manning an information stall at local community events or the Bath and West Show, assisting with children's activities, serving refreshments, organising car-parking, or helping to prepare for an event by putting together displays and resources.

What's in it for you?

- Work as part of a small and friendly team
- Meet new people
- Develop your communication skills and confidence
- Gain experience of working with a wide variety of visitors
- Depending on the type of event there will be the opportunity to learn about: local wildlife, rural crafts, waste management and/ or sustainable buildings

The skills you need

If you are a sociable person who enjoys working as part of a team, although happy to work unsupervised on occasions, and have a general interest in environmental education, local wildlife and /or sustainability issues you may be just the person we need.

Interested?

If you are interested please send your CV and a cover letter to Rupert Farthing (Chief Executive) at rupert.farthing@carymoor.org.uk or phone 01963 350143 for more information.

Please note that some volunteer roles are subject to a satisfactory Criminal Records Check.
